

The University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee's Electa Quinney Institute for American Indian Education has been awarded a grant by the U.S. Department of Education's Bureau of Indian Education to financially support and prepare qualified Native Americans to become teachers or administrators.

Please answer the following questions to determine if you qualify for one of our programs:

- Do you identify as Native American?
- Are you pursuing a teaching degree or an administrative license degree?

If you answered yes to both questions, please consider applying for this grant opportunity:

- As a student in this program you will receive tuition support, a yearly stipend, and professional development opportunities.

It would be great to have a conversation with you today or next week, to determine if you qualify.
